

PTM-72-2000-B-EC MOORING/UMBILICAL CABLE

The PTM tool is being used on the termination flange for 2 to 3 km long multitask umbilical and mooring cables used for subsea oil and gas production systems. The 'External Control' version of the tool fitted with a torque transducer is used because of the safety critical nature of these bolts and so that the applied torque can be logged.